Agenda Adopted

- Topic of Discussion

- ✓ Grace Fielder

- Councilwoman Smallwood notes that she received a call from Grace Fielder on January 31, 2014, inquiry on her invoices, and that someone had went to the County to pick up her submitted invoices. And also that D. R. Horton also had not received her invoices.
 - Councilwoman Smallwood indicates that the Administration has not responded to this information that she sent via email.
 - Mr. Wood is asked if he is aware of the Status of Grace Fielder invoices and the invoices that also go to D. R. Horton.
 - Mr. Wood states he heard that there were some invoices submitted to the county and then she would be paid from the County and Mr. Reaves (former City Manager) was to submit the invoices to the county.
 - Council’s plan of action is that Ms. Grace fielder to re-submit the invoices to the City and the City to submit to the County.

Motion by Councilwoman Jenkins to go into Closed Session - Seconded by Councilwoman Phifer

- Councilwoman Phifer/Smallwood asked Mr. Wood to contact Ms. Fielder for the resubmittal of the new duplicated invoices to the City and have them mailed to the County.
- Mr. Wilson (citizen) questions why was Ms. Fielder was calling the Council President instead of calling the Mayor.
- Mr. Reid (citizen) offers suggestion that the vendor (Ms. Fielder) should go through the Mayor and Administration and then it can trickle down to the Council.
