- Citizen Comments
 - Mr. Anthony Powell offers that expenses seem high – and questions where that is accurate for the size of the City of Glenarden.
 - Mr. Rubin Reid offers his opinion that employee's need a raise and salary increases should not be across the board with a cost of living adjustment (COLA). Also, that the Police Department should have a different pay scale. And that the City need a tractor and dump truck with a lift.
- Announcement from Interim City Manager, Eddie Tobias, regarding trash collection and street lighting that WTC and the Cottages of Glenarden that the Home Owners Association (HOA) representative need to offer their decision so that the Tax Assessment Department the information to collect the trash or not.
- Adjourn at 7:15PM
